Keith Miller, ex roadie and recently deceased lieutenant in the US Army, asks from beyond the grave for one favor from Shades, and thatâ€™s to take his sister on the next tour with them. Keeping her away from her current headache is paramount, and he knows sheâ€™s going to need not only friends to deal with his death, but family as well. He never had better family by choice than Shades, including his blood brother, Chandler.

And Chandler Holms has it bad for his best friendâ€™s kid sister. Gone is the girl with pigtails and awkwardness, and in her place is a bona-fied hottie complete with tattoos and a heart stopping body. Seeing her again brought his feelings to the fore. For a while he was trying to fight them in respect of his best friend, but now heâ€™s faced with the reality that the girl is everything heâ€™s ever wanted.

Rory Miller has been in love with her brotherâ€™s best friend since before she knew what a crush was. Chandler has been the focus of every waking fantasy sheâ€™s ever had, but she convinced he still sees her as the young girl that followed him around as a kid, the girl he was forever getting out of scrapes.

The final wishes of one man are going to set the two on a path neither expected. Close quarters of a tour bus means neither can hide how they feel. Too bad an obsessed ex wants to ruin it all.
