Danger was his middle name. And that was why Detective Cole Brownfield walked through this world alone—until the day irresistible Debbie Randall came back into his life, shaking his resolve to keep his heart clear of entanglements. But would love be the final word? Cole's greatest fears were realized the day Debbie got caught in the cross fire that was his daily trade. Now the hard-edged officer was working double time to keep this woman safe. For suddenly he was drawn by a power even greater than that of duty. But would he answer the call of love?
