She spent six years on the run and now he's back

To the world, Byron Carter might be a dangerously handsome billionaire with unparalleled business skills.

What few people don't know, however, is that he's struggling to raise two children alone after his wife's death.

In spite of his playboy reputation, Byron had all but given up on love, choosing instead to devote himself to his work and kids.

Until he meets feisty Ashley Mathews.

An elementary school art teacher, Ashley takes an instant dislike to the arrogant billionaire but soon realizes there's more to him that meets the eye.

In spite of their mutual reservations, they are irrevocably drawn to each other and embark on a torrid whirlwind romance.

What Byron does not know, however, is that she's hiding the one secret that could forever break them apart.

Will Ashley ever come clean about her past? And what happens when he discovers what she's running from?
