There are things that are so hard to say aloud. Especially when it comes to something that you never thought your heart was capable of feeling.

In Ashton Bright's life, there is no place for feelings. A successful surgeon, he knows how to make hearts beat faster, yet his own heart is as cold as a scalpel. He doesn't know how to do romance, and he knows even less about love.

The day Nicola Holt comes to work as Ashton's assistant, everything he believed was right for him becomes wrong. For someone whose everyday job is saving lives, Ashton finds himself too weak to stand against Nicola's charm.

But most of all, he hates that she makes him feel things – the things he once swore to never allow himself to be submerged in.

“I have spent my whole life searching for what I have found in you. I do not want to let it go...”
