Pete: Melinda Charles was the woman Iâ€™d always wantedâ€™the woman I finally got.

And the one I lost.

She walked away from me on our wedding day without an explanation. I told myself I didnâ€™t need her. She might have broken part of me when she left, but Iâ€™ve put myself back together, chased away her memory with my own fame and success. Today? Iâ€™m Pete Buchanan, NFL star and small-town hero.

Now that sheâ€™s back? Maybe the promise of a second chance could prove stronger than the pain of losing her.

Melinda: Iâ€™ve always been tough. As the youngest attending Chief of Orthopedic Surgery at Memorial Hermann, and the only female African American specialist in that role, Iâ€™ve always had more to prove than everyone else. Iâ€™ve always had to have a reserve of strength no one else needed. But when fate brings me back to the only man Iâ€™ve ever loved, fifteen years after I left him at the altar, Iâ€™m not strong enough to leave him again.

I still love him.

But am I strong enough to convince him to take me back?
